Welcome to Shanti Boutique.

Shanti is an ancient Sanskrit word meaning peace. shanti boutique is dedicated to bringing you shanti through our exquisite yoga, chakra and sacred symbol jewelry.

“Founded in 2004, our wholesale and retail fair trade company sells unique silver jewelry, designed in the west and made in the east. The majority of our jewelry is original, designed by our designing team and we reserve rights to these designs.”

I found shanti boutique about a month ago while surfing the internet, and was instantly intrigued with all of the gorgeous jewelry sold on their website, not to mention the very great fact that shanti boutique also proudly donates a portion of their profits to the Tibetan Children’s Education Foundation and are a member of the Fair Trade Federation!

shanti boutique sells all sorts of fascinating jewelry like toe rings, anklets, pendants, earrings, bracelets, necklaces, and rings for men, women, and also children!

I was sent the Chakra Circle of Happiness Necklace, and it is BEYOND breath-taking! I was in awe when I opened the beautiful box when it came in the mail!

Is that not STUNNING?? I knew all of the jewelry from shanti boutique looked beautiful on their website in the pictures, however you must see this up close and in person as their pictures just do not do their jewelry justice!!

At shanti boutique you can shop for these fine jewelry pieces by line as well!

Choose from yoga, chakras, charmas, love nature, meditation, om & mantras, and simplicity! You will certainly be pleased with everything that shanti boutique has to offer! Not only do they sell high quality gorgeous looking jewelry, you just can't go wrong with the prices here!

I spent hours going through their site and found so many beautiful pieces as well as many functional items. It is truly a place that offers they key to relaxing.
