Smart green shopping? I love shopping....Well I don't know a woman how doesn't and ever since I discovered online shopping, I am even better and being able to get the products I want with a click of a button, which is just awesome.

We established that I LOVE shopping, and Love green products, so I try to get as many "conscientious" products as possible. Yes I like doing my part to save the planet and if I get to shop while I do it, then you'll hear no complaints from me.

A few weeks ago I was "surfing" for some Eco-Friendly stores when I stumbled upon an amazing site: Shanti Boutique. Shanti was Founded in 2004, and it is a retail fair trade company that sells unique silver jewelry, designed in the west and made in the east. The majority of Shanti's jewelry is original, designed by Shanti's designing team and they reserve rights to these designs.

How is Shanti a green oriented business? Shanti Boutique is committed to doing their part for the environment. This is achieved by following the basic principle of reduce, reuse, and recycle in addition to carbon offsetting.

All of Shanti's jewelry is sterling silver (92.5%) and most of their designs are handcrafted, making each piece a unique creation.

Combining years of experience in their own yoga studio store and a team of talented designers, Shanti Boutique jewelry is designed specifically for sale in yoga studios, lifestyle/mindstyle stores, new age stores, spiritual centers, spas and fair trade businesses. And people like me that are fond of unique jewelry pieces like the necklace they sent me for the review.

I have always been really intrigued by yoga life style and have been trying to get myself to start practicing and learn some about this ancient art.

I received the Good vibes throat chakra charm which is made of sterling silver and has a turquoise colored cubic zirconia stone in the center of the pendant.

The spring clasp makes it simple for you to use it on your favorite necklace or create your own charm blend and make your own mix of different charms....I know I just can't help it I love charms. This adorable pendant is part of the Chanti's charms, good karma charms collection.

I was lucky enough to also received a smooth waxed cotton 3-string necklace that features an adjustable sterling silver clasp from 16-17" (40-42 cm) in turquoise which looks awesome with the pendant (it matches perfectly)!

Win it:
